PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY. YOU ARE BEING ASKED TO RELEASE US OF ALL LIABILITY.

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that I am applying for instruction in a martial art involving strenuous exercise and personal body contact. This may include, without limitation, being grabbed, pushed, punched, kicked, and struck with weapons, being thrown to the ground, and possible exposure to blood. I understand that because of this there is always an inherent risk of injury that cannot be eliminated. Such injuries may include, but are not limited to, pulled muscles, dislocated joints and broken bones. I acknowledge that Aikido of Northern Virginia, Inc., (hereafter called ANV, Inc.) and Frank Doran carry no insurance against injury to any of their students. I ALSO REALIZE THAT I MAY AT ANY TIME REFUSE TO ENGAGE IN ANY ACTIVITY WHICH I DEEM HARMFUL TO MYSELF IN ANY WAY, AND BY ENGAGING IN ANY OF THE ACTIVITIES OF AIKIDO OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA I FULLY ACCEPT AND ACKNOWLEDGE ALL RISKS INVOLVED.

In consideration for being admitted into Aikido of Northern Virginia, Inc. and receiving training in the martial arts, consideration that I hereby acknowledge is valuable and adequate to support my performance under this contract of release, I agree to hold Frank Doran, ANV, Inc., its employees, agents, officers, directors and shareholders, harmless from all liability that arises, directly or indirectly, from injury to me, or from injury caused to third parties by me, while on the premises of ANV, Inc. or elsewhere, and at any time in the future. I agree not to sue Frank Doran, ANV, Inc., its employees, agents, officers, directors and shareholders, and agree to reimburse to Frank Doran, ANV, Inc., it's employees, agents, officers, directors and shareholders for all attorney fees and costs if I do sue.

BLOOD-RELATED MATTERS

It is very possible that at some period in your martial arts career you will on some occasion, unknowingly or otherwise, practice with a student who is HIV positive. You also may be exposed to bleeding or blood in the practice area. There is no way to predict, or entirely prevent this. With a little common sense there is also no reason to be anxious since all current research affirms that contact sports provide no risk to the practitioners where blood is not a factor.

HOWEVER, since the only means of transmission of the virus at all relevant to practice concerns the presence of blood, the following is DOJO POLICY and should be strictly observed:

TREAT all and any blood in the dojo with utmost caution. Blood on the mat should be washed off immediately. The dojo has appropriate gloves and disinfectant for this purpose. Also in the unlikely event that someone is injured enough to need help and is bleeding profusely, use gloves if there is any possibility of coming into contact with blood.

MUCH more likely are small abrasions or scrapes, (the dojo handbook instructs you to keep your finger and toe nails clipped short to avoid cutting those you are working with). It is each student's responsibility to COVER all open wounds or cuts. If such an injury occurs during class, then bow off the mat and attend to and cover it. This makes good sense anyway.

ABOVE ALL use common sense.

I have read the above section on Blood-Related matters and specifically acknowledge and accept all risks which may be implied in the practice of the Martial Arts taught at ANV, Inc.. I am familiar with the procedures to be followed should there be exposure to blood while practicing at Aikido of Northern Virginia, Inc.'s activities, and agree to follow those procedures as best as reason and common-sense will allow.

I certify that I have read the foregoing RELEASE AND WAIVER, that I understand its terms, that I have no physical infirmities that would be aggravated by the activities described in this RELEASE AND WAIVER, that I am 18 years of age or older, that I have observed a class or demonstration of the martial arts taught by Aikido of Northern Virginia, Inc., that no one has made any representations to me that in any way contradict the terms of this RELEASE AND WAIVER, and that I am signing this RELEASE AND WAIVER of my own free will.

I understand that the martial arts taught at Aikido of Northern Virginia, Inc. are educational systems. For the benefit of this education and training and of the safety of myself and others, I will strictly follow the Rules of the Dojo and the general rules of dojo safety, the realities of martial arts practice in general, and Aikido in particular. Should I break any of these rules, I understand that it is the decision of the Master Instructor whether or not I may continue training. I will abide by his decision.
